Template:Proposed/doc

When a proposal is being advanced it is usual to tag the page with $\{\{\underline{Proposed}\}\}$. Although a proposal is generally written in advisory tone, it is not policy until adopted by the community through the consensus-building process.

Usage

{{Proposed}}

Example

{{Proposed}}

produces

The following is a proposed Foresight Wiki policy, guideline, or process. The proposal may still be in development, under discussion, or in the process of gathering consensus for adoption. Thus references or links to this page should not describe it as "policy".
